

Dynamic Triage Assessment

Autonomous Forensic Report

PIPELINE	Automated Triage Pipeline
CASE ID	tdungan-telemetry
PREPARED BY	Autonomous DFIR Agent
REPORT DATE	2026-06-15 UTC

01 Executive Summary

Evidence indicates a compromise involving C2 communication and staging of suspicious binaries. Masquerading of svchost.exe in a non-standard directory is observed, consistent with persistence mechanisms.

Null Hypothesis Evaluation: The system is assumed benign. However, the presence of svchost.exe in c:\windows\system32\dllhost\ and connections to known malicious IPs (207.58.245.179) contradicts the null hypothesis.

Candidate MITRE ATT&CK Techniques: T1036, T1071, T1105, T1074, T1021, T1189

EXTRACTED FINDINGS

02 Attack Sequence & Timeline

- Step 1: User accessed external content via browser, resulting in a redirect to a bit.ly URL. T1189 (Conf: High)
- Step 2: Presence of staged archive 2011-W2.zip identified in logs, potentially staging malicious content. T1560 (Conf: Medium)
- Step 3: Evidence indicates download of malicious payload from C2 server. T1105 (Conf: High)
- Step 4: Presence of suspicious executable pkxezy1tji98.exe in user temp directory. T1105 (Conf: High)
- Step 5: Evidence indicates secondary payload download from C2 server. T1105 (Conf: Medium)
- Step 6: Evidence indicates execution of masqueraded svchost.exe from non-standard directory. T1036 (Conf: Medium)
- Step 7: Presence of registry file winclient.reg in system32 directory, potentially related to persistence. T1547 (Conf: Medium)
- Step 8: Evidence indicates established C2 communication with remote server. T1071 (Conf: High)
